

Contributors

Marta Andruszkiewicz – Ph.D. in Law, Lecturer at the Department of Legal Theory and Philosophy of Law, Faculty of Law, University of Białystok. She specializes in Theory of Law and Philosophy of Law.

Anetta Breczko – Ph.D. in Law, Habilitation, Professor of the University of Białystok, Lecturer at the Department of Legal Theory and Philosophy of Law, Faculty of Law, University of Białystok. Fields of study: Philosophy of Law, Theory of Law.

Monika Domańska – Ph.D. in Law, Researcher at the Department of European Law of the Institute of Legal Sciences of the Polish Academy of Sciences in Warsaw.

Anna Drabarz – Ph.D. in Law, Lecturer at the Department of Public International Law, Faculty of Law, University of Białystok. Her scientific interests involve anti-discrimination law, socioeconomic rights, European Union economic law and policy.

Urszula Drozdowska – Ph.D. in Law, Assistant Professor at the Private International Law Institute / Civil Law Department at the Faculty of Law, University of Białystok.

Tomasz Dubowski – Ph.D. in Law, Assistant Professor at the Faculty of Law, University of Białystok, B.A. in political science. He specializes in European Union constitutional law, EU's Area of Freedom, Security and Justice and EU external action.

Ramona Duminiță – Ph.D. Lecturer at the Faculty of Economic Sciences and Law, University of Pitești, Romania.

William D. Edgington – Ed.D. Department of Curriculum & Instruction, Sam Houston State University, Huntsville, Texas. He currently serves as Interim Chair of the department. His Ed.D. is in Curriculum and Instruction with an emphasis in Social Science Education.

James W. Hynes – Ph.D., Assistant Professor at the Department of Curriculum & Instruction and Director of the Center for International Education at Sam Houston State University, Huntsville, Texas.

Katarzyna Jaworska – Ph.D. in Law, Assistant professor at the Department of Labour Law and Social Security at the Faculty of Law and Administration of the University of Warmia and Mazury in Olsztyn. Legal adviser at the Regional Chamber of Legal Advisers in Olsztyn.

Sylwia Afrodyta Karowicz-Bienias – M.A. in Law, Ph.D. candidate at Department of Public International Law, Faculty of Law, University of Białystok.

Katarzyna Laskowska – Professor of Law, specialist in the field of criminology and criminal law, an academic teacher at the Faculty of Law, University of Białystok.

Eric Namungalu – LL.M Candidate, Syracuse University College of Law, Open Society Disability Rights Scholar 2017-2018. Disability rights advocate in Uganda.

Maciej Oksztulski – MA in Law, PhD student at the Department of Public International Law, Faculty of Law, University of Białystok. He is interested in public international law, human rights and the right to education and work of people with autism spectrum. The first non-speaking autistic person who graduated from law studies in Poland.

Cezary Pachnik – M.A. in Law, Ph.D. candidate at Department of Public International Law, Faculty of Law, University of Białystok.

Maciej Perkowski – Professor of Law, Faculty of Law, University of Białystok; Head of the Department of Public International Law. His research interests include public international law, international organizations law, European Union law, regional development, European funds and public-private partnership structure.

Andra Nicoleta Puran – Ph.D. Lecturer at the Faculty of Economic Sciences and Law, University of Pitești, Romania. She is a researcher in Public and Civil Law.

Michael A. Schwartz – Associate Professor of Law, Disability Rights Clinic Director in the Office of Clinical Legal Education at Syracuse University College of Law. A member of the New York and Connecticut BARs. He earned a bachelor's degree in English from Brandeis University, a master's degree in Theater Arts from Northwestern University, and a Juris Doctor degree from New York University School of Law. He also earned an LL.M. degree from Columbia University School of Law and a Ph.D. in Education, with a concentration in Disability Studies, from Syracuse University.

Elena Shinkareva – Legal adviser in the Regional branch of the Deaf Organization in Arkhangelsk, lecturer at the Institute of Open Education, candidate of sciences in law (Moscow State Social University, 2007), Ph.D. research fellow (UIT The Arctic University of Norway, 2013– 2016).

Karolina Sztobryn – Ph.D. in European Economic Law. Graduated from the Faculty of Law and Administration at the University of Łódź, Lecturer and Associate Professor in the Department of European Economic Law of the Faculty of Law and Administration at the University of Łódź. In 2015 completed patent attorney training at the Polish Chamber of Patent Attorneys.

Cora True-Frost – Associate Professor of Law at Syracuse University College of Law. Expert in international law and constitutional and human rights law. Her primary research interests include the development of international norms, with a particular focus on the role of international organizations and the United Nations Security Council in these processes. She also serves as Faculty Advisor to the National Women’s Law Student Association and the Syracuse University Program on Refugee Assistance. In 2015, she was appointed by New York Governor Mario Cuomo to be a member of the state Developmental Disabilities Planning Council.

Iwona Wrońska – Ph.D. in Law, Assistant Professor at the Department of Public International Law, Faculty of Law, University of Białystok. Specializes in international protection of human rights. Honorary consul of Estonia in Białystok.

