

Copyright and Licensing

Authors publishing in this journal retain copyright in their published articles. The copyright notice for each article is as follows: © Copyright by the Author(s).

By submitting and, upon acceptance, publishing an article in this journal, the Author(s) enter into a License Agreement (chrome-extension://efaidnbmnnnibpcajpcglclefindmkaj/https://reference-global.com/download/document/journal/BSP/License_Agreement.pdf) with the Journal/Publisher. Under this Agreement, the Author(s) grant the Journal/Publisher the non-exclusive right to publish, reproduce, distribute, archive, index, preserve, and make the final published version of the article — the Version of Record — publicly available in all media and formats, including online dissemination through the journal website, repositories, indexing databases, and other scholarly communication platforms.

All articles published in this journal are made available under the Creative Commons Attribution-NonCommercial-NoDerivatives 4.0 International License (CC BY-NC-ND 4.0). The full text of the license is available at: <https://creativecommons.org/licenses/by-nc-nd/4.0/>

Under the CC BY-NC-ND 4.0 license, users are permitted to copy and redistribute the published article in any medium or format, provided that:

1. appropriate credit is given to the Author(s);
2. the original source of publication is cited;
3. a link to the Creative Commons license is provided;
4. the use is for non-commercial purposes only;
5. the article is not modified, adapted, transformed, translated, or used to create derivative works that are distributed or made publicly available.

The CC BY-NC-ND 4.0 license does not permit commercial use of the published article. It also does not permit the distribution of modified, adapted, translated, or otherwise derivative versions of the article without prior permission from the copyright holder.

The Author(s) retain all rights not expressly granted to the Journal/Publisher under the License Agreement or to the public under the CC BY-NC-ND 4.0 license. In particular, the Author(s) retain the right to be properly attributed as the creators of the work and, subject to the terms of the License Agreement, to reuse their work in accordance with applicable law and the license terms.

The Journal/Publisher retains the right to identify itself as the original publisher of the Version of Record and to ensure the integrity, citation, preservation, dissemination, and long-term availability of the published article.

Any use of the article beyond the scope of the CC BY-NC-ND 4.0 license, including commercial use or the distribution of adaptations or derivative works, requires prior permission from the copyright holder and, where applicable, must comply with the License Agreement.

Third-party materials included in an article, such as figures, tables, images, photographs, or other copyrighted content, are covered by the CC BY-NC-ND 4.0 license only if this is expressly indicated. Where third-party material is not covered by the Creative Commons license, users are responsible for obtaining permission from the relevant rights holder before reusing such material.

The licensing and copyright information published on the journal website, in article PDF files, in metadata, and in any other official journal materials should be consistent and should identify the applicable license as:

Creative Commons Attribution-NonCommercial-NoDerivatives 4.0 International License (CC BY-NC-ND 4.0).

A recommended article-level copyright and license statement is: © Copyright by the Author(s). Published under the Creative Commons Attribution-NonCommercial-NoDerivatives 4.0 International License (CC BY-NC-ND 4.0), <https://creativecommons.org/licenses/by-nc-nd/4.0/>.
